

Deputy Director in Finance

For full job posting, visit: <https://newalbanyohio.org/answers/careers/>

The City of New Albany is hiring for the position of Deputy Director in the Finance department. This exempt position reports to the Finance Director and will supervise a small team of employees in the Finance department.

This position requires a quality, sound financial background with knowledge, skills and abilities in each of the functional areas of finance, with particular emphasis on integrated strategic planning, municipal finance, budgeting and revenue forecasting. The deputy director will demonstrate creative thinking to solve problems, while being committed to great customer service and best practices in finance. The position will display a positive, collaborative leadership approach. This innovative leader will have excellent presentation skills along with a track record of building strong, positive relationships and partnerships with business and developmental interests, financial service institutions, and rating and regulatory agencies.

Review the position description for more information about the job duties, responsibilities and qualifications required of the position.

Candidates must submit the following to be considered for the position:

- Resume and cover letter
- Completed questionnaire
- Employment application*

Materials must be submitted to hr@newalbanyohio.org by September 13th, 2020.

The salary range for this position is $102,601.36 to $128,251.71. Employees receive employer sponsored short-term disability and life insurance and have access to a generous health insurance plan along with paid vacation, sick, and personal leave. City employees participate in OPERS. Other benefits are covered by Codified Ordinance 155.

*EEO form is optional and separated from application when submitted.