Dear Fellow OAPT Members,

Welcome, to our new associates! And welcome back to our old friends and colleagues. Yes, 2020 has been a tough year for all of us but we're still here! The Ohio APT is dedicated as ever to serving and educating Public Finance Officers throughout Ohio. Obviously we're in a bit of a flux this year and at this point, with great regret we've had to cancel our "Hot Topic" symposium in April, our Public Officer Training in June, and our annual conference next month, given the global COVID-19 pandemic and our many members' travel and budgetary restrictions.

We still need our CPIMs though! Our Director of Education (and past president) Sal Talarico has organized an accredited 2 hour webinar for October 7: "Ethics and Fraud Prevention in a Pandemic." We've got nearly 100 registered so far, but there's still time and cyberspace available. Check out our website for more details. www.ohioapt.org.

In fact, keep checking in with us regularly. At our website www.ohioapt.org, by email, by phone. Our networking is as important and valuable to our membership as is our high-quality, low-cost training. You can reach me personally by phone at (330) 438-4747, and by email at michael.mcenaney@cantonohio.gov.

Your OAPT Board has been active and engaged throughout this pandemic, holding monthly teleconferences, keeping OAPT business matters moving right along, and planning for a tremendous 2021!

Our 2021 Hot Topic will be back at Der Dutchman on April 23, 2021. Mark your calendar!

The Annual Public Finance Training Program at the Kalahari in Sandusky is scheduled for June 14-18, 2021. The week program will award participants CPIM credits, CPE's and CPFA points, and it tends to be a lot of fun!

The OAPT's 46th Annual Conference, October 6-8, 2021, also will offer quality education opportunities and credits for CPIM, CPE's and CPFA requirements. The conference is also an excellent way to strengthen your personal network with fellow Public Finance Officers and share and compare experiences and circumstances.

Again, please be sure to bookmark our website at www.ohioapt.org, and check in with us regularly!

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible very soon. In the meantime be safe, mind your social distance, and feel well!

Sincerely,

Mike
