

Open Enrollment for the selection of your managed care organization (MCO) is May 1-26, 2023. Ohio Association of Public Treasurers endorses Sedgwick Managed Care Ohio (Sedgwick MCO) as the clear MCO of choice for our members.

Your managed care organization plays a vital role in your ability to control claim costs, care for injured employees, and preserve your options for premium savings. We have partnered with and endorse Sedgwick MCO and encourage all of our members to join Sedgwick MCO because of their clear focus on helping injured employees recover and successfully return to work. Our members benefit through lower medical and claim costs, reduced lost time, improved employee health and productivity, and a well-organized workers' compensation program.

Sedgwick MCO is an essential component of our workers' compensation solution, and the data continues to validate their effectiveness for our members. There are no fees or contracts involved with the MCO enrollment. If you are already enrolled with Sedgwick MCO, no action is required, and your enrollment will renew automatically.

Enrollment is simple. Click Here to learn more about Sedgwick MCO, their key performance metrics, and to access the enrollment form.
