The Community

Located on the Ohio-Pennsylvania border, the Village of East Palestine is a charming community of approximately 5000 residents. This small, quaint, and close-knit village provides a strong sense of community pride and engagement. It is within 50 miles of Pittsburgh, 85 miles of Cleveland and 20 miles of Youngstown.

The village is a full-service local government of police, fire, EMS, eater, wastewater, park, street, cemetery, and administrative departments.

The Village has a City Council/City Manager form of government. The form of government established by this Charter shall be known as the Mayor-Council-Manager Plan. The powers and functions of the municipal government hereby created shall be distributed among the Municipality, its citizens, and the various officers, bodies, boards, and commissions according to the provisions of this Charter as set forth hereinafter. The City Council consists of six (6) city councilmembers, and one (1) mayor, who is a non-voting member unless required to break a tie of the City Council.

On February 3, 2023, a freight train derailed in East Palestine. The state of Ohio, in partnership with local and federal agencies, is working to provide resources to the community. This role will work closely with state and federal leaders to request, obtain, and assign funds. We're looking for an experienced leader who will be a long-term part of East Palestine's growth and renewal.
