

Job Opportunity: Fiscal Officer - Elyria Public Library System [OH]

Are you ready for the next step in your career?

We are excited to be partnering with Elyria Public Library System to help them find their next Fiscal Officer.

About the Opportunity

This is a dynamic finance and accounting leadership position that ensures that all financial operations comply with applicable laws and statutes of the State of Ohio, state auditing requirements, sound finance and accounting practices, and established policies and decisions of the Board of Trustees. The Fiscal Officer also serves as the trusted fiscal advisor to the Library's Board of Trustees, administrative and department-level leadership teams, and the finance/audit committee. In addition to planning and providing oversight for a $5.7 million annual operating budget, the Fiscal Officer is a key driver of the newly established strategic goals that will help enable the Library to meet the evolving needs of its patrons and staff.

About the Elyria Public Library System

Founded in 1870, Elyria Public Library System is recognized locally and regionally for exceptional public service and provides a wide array of materials, programs, and services to Lorain County's citizens. The library system is comprised of four branch locations [three of which were recently renovated] and two mobile outreach vehicles. The library enjoys strong financial support from the community. It passed a perpetual levy by a 60% margin in 2014.

Elyria Public Library System's mission is to connect, engage, and inspire all with intellectual and creative opportunities.
